

Important Questions for the Afghanistan Story Project Brainstormed by Mrs. Bray's 1st period class

- What type of character should I create?
- What is the character's name? What are common names in Afghanistan?
- What is the character's situation? Conflict?
- How old is the character? What events have they witnessed?
- Where in Kabul does the character live? What does the house look like?
- How does the character live? Income? Job? Food? Daily chores? (Infrastructure-utilities)
- What other characters are in the story? Family? What is their relationship?
- How is the conflict resolved? What happens to the character in the story?
- How does the character feel about the situation?
- What do the characters wear?
- What is the character's background and religion? Motivations? Who does the character believe should govern them? New government? Current government?
- Customs & Traditions?
- View of Americans? Character's perspective and opinion? Interaction with Americans?
- How healthy is the character? Access to healthcare?
- Education? Access to education?
- Do women have more rights?
- Is the character a girl or boy? How does this affect how he/she lives?
- Hobbies? Fun? Sports?
- What technology does the area have? Media Access?