

Dear Upcoming 11th Grade Honors English Students:

By applying for Honors English, you accepted the challenge to work a little harder and become a stronger student, which begins with your summer reading!

This summer, you will need to read the following in order to be prepared for Honors English.

3 of the following dramas:

A Raisin in the Sun by Lorraine Hansberry
Twelve Angry Men by Reginald Rose
Our Town by Thornton Wilder
Cat on a Hot Tin Roof by Tennessee Williams
The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams

AND

Because these dramas are reasonably short, you will also need to read Jeannette Wall's memoir The Glass Castle OR Frank McCourt's memoir Angela's Ashes.

You will be held accountable for this reading these 4 texts in the first week of school. It is your responsibility to be done reading by that point and extensions will not be granted.

During the first week of school, expect writing prompts, discussion prompts, and creative assignments focusing on your reading. It will be to your advantage if you take some kind of notes and pay meticulous attention to the readings. Also, consider connections among the texts as you read and take notes/reflect.

Please recognize that it is perfectly acceptable to struggle with some of your reading; you only become a better reader by finding material that causes you to reach and struggle. If you consult other sources to aid your comprehension, make sure you use these sources to support your comprehension and not replace the reading of the text itself. Doing independent research about the time period of each text may be helpful to you. While you have a choice of dramas from this list, please do not choose one that you have already read, has been read to you, or whose movie you have seen (even the cartoon). Additionally, children's illustrated classics and abridged versions are an insult to your lexile level.

Some of the texts deal with mature topics or use language that you might find offensive. It would be to your benefit to do a little research before choosing your dramas to ensure that the subject matter and language are within your acceptable reading standards. If you run into something you are uncomfortable reading, choose a new text!

PLEASE NOTE:

This is not something you can put off until the last week of the summer, so get started as soon as possible. Some of the reading will be difficult. Plan ahead: give yourself enough time to switch texts if you find one that you do not like. You are responsible for obtaining copies of the texts either through a library, a bookstore, or borrowing from a friend.

Remember, you are making a commitment as an honors student to complete your work to the best of your ability. I expect an honors performance. Please plan accordingly with your time. If you lose this list, you can find it on the school website.

I look forward to meeting you in August! Feel free to email me with questions. Happy reading!

Ms. Wilder☺
