OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS:

Review of CRCT Scores for the 2008-09 school year.

Mr. McGlennen and Brandy Corbett reviewed the preliminary (unofficial) CRCT results and data analysis for Jefferson Middle School. JMS and JCS administrators use preliminary results to drive decision-making for 09-10 school improvement because official test scores do not arrive until mid-September.

AIMS Web

Brandy Corbett discussed AIMS Web, which is another student assessment piece JMS will be adding for the new school year. AIMS Web is a student progress monitoring system that will benchmark students three times per year to provide early detection and strategic monitoring of progress. AIMS Web will also provide opportunities to help students and parents set goals for Pyramids of Intervention.
